- On earnings basis , the strategy has outperformed the index in 7 out of last 8 quarters
- Earnings underperformance in the last quarter was due to deep cyclicals which is expected to be transient
- On a cumulative basis of economic value of the portfolio we should have outperformed by ~2x. However, we have underperformed by 9%. This is an anomaly which will get corrected with time

ICICI BANK

Best man at the helm in what was always a good franchise

ICICI Bank under the leadership of Mr Sandeep Bakhshi; in our view should be a very different bank than in the past. All our checks suggest a clear focus on 'risk'; in what's already a good liability franchise (45%+ CASA).

Significant value creation in subsidiaries

ICICI Prudential Life Insurance Company, ICICI Securities, ICICI Lombard General Insurance Company; have already been listed on the bourses; while we expect ICICI Prudential Asset Management to list in the next 12-24 months

Strong growth outlook

We expect ICICI Bank to report 40% PAT CAGR over next 3 years time; taking its RoE from mid-single digit to ~14%-15% levels.

Re-rating to be gradual

Ex-subsidiary valuation; ICICI Bank trades at a P/B of 1x; which is at a substantial discount to intrinsic value; given our expectation of steady-state 16-18% RoEs. We believe as the bank delivers; it should re-rate gradually.

Multi-decade track record

Stellar track record of minimum 16% RoE and minimum 19% growth in any given year over the last 20 years; despite multiple corporate and retail cycles over these years

Strong liability franchise

42% CASA, 5.0% cost of funds; on the asset side equal mix between corporate and retail assets which provides the right flexibility to maneuverer growth / risk

Beneficiary of transition to digital

Virtual RM platform; automated digital lending, through which cost to income has declined from 45% to 39% over last 3 years

Smooth CEO transition; Attractively valued

- Smooth transition in CEO from Mr Aditya Puri to Mr Sashidhar Jagdishan; internal leader taking charge bodes well to maintain culture and franchise continuity.
- The bank is trading at 2.9x TTM P/B. Prospects of 20%+ growth / 18% RoE.

4

Dr Reddy's Laboratories

Promoter owned – Professionally run

New CEO was well empowered and consequently had taken hard steps to re-shape the business to become fitter, profitable and more predictable. Margins have moved from 20% to 25% in 2 years and RoE from 11% to 16%.

Strong R&D capability

With a strong R&D lineage, higher productivity focus with lower product concentration have led to lower volatility in performance.

Leadership positioning strengthening across markets

With the existing dominant presence in US, two emerging geographies where they will be gaining dominance in future viz India and China. This would happen in conjunction with expanding therapy menus viz Injectibles

Growth Mindset

High quality growth and well governed business available at reasonable valuations of ~30x P/E with 17% RoCE for FY21. Their aspiration to be the most productive pharma company in India alongwith being the Top 5 player in Domestic market is setting up the company nicely for the next few years as well

5

HINDUSTAN UNILEVER

Lowered competition intensity

Over the last 4-5 years, competition intensity has decreased in the FMCG space in India. This has increased margins for all players in the market. It is likely to continue over the next few years.

Increased exposure to Food and Beverages

With the acquisition of Glaxosmithkline Consumer Healthcare, F&B revenue contribution to the portfolio in the previous financial year is likely to have been ~35%. Additionally, the F&B market in India is larger than the home care market.

Larger players poised to benefit

In the current environment, along with themes such as the formalization of the economy continuing to play out, a large market player with a strong balance sheet, control on distribution and supply chain is likely to benefit.

Strong quarterly results

HUL has beaten earnings expectations over the last quarter and has been using this period to expand market share.
